

THE TRISAGION

THE MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF HOLY TRINITY ORTHODOX CHURCH

Preparing for True Renewal by Fr. Basil Biberdorf

February 2 marks a confluence of special events this year: the Meeting of the Lord in the Temple, Groundhog Day, and Super Bowl Sunday. This particular year brings with it the surprise—and perhaps the disappointment—of hearing the reading of the Gospel telling us about that short tax collector, Zacchaeus, and his climbing of the tree. The very next Sunday will begin the three pre-Lenten weeks.

The problem with pre-Lent for most of us is that it makes us think of Great Lent itself, and particularly of the deprivations of the season. As a result, a common attitude toward the pre-Lenten weeks is one of “indulge now, for tomorrow we can’t.”

And, so, during the fast-free week of the Publican and the Pharisee (February 9-15), the temptation is to eat as much as we can, gratifying each desire for food, whether steaks, burgers, desserts, eggs, or cheeses. The fast-free Wednesday and Friday provide merely more opportunities to enjoy. The week of the Prodigal Son (February 16-22) brings us back to a regular schedule, with abstinence from meat and dairy on Wednesday and Friday, and our desire to make full use of the non-fasting days therein.

The undercurrent in all of these perspectives is that Lent is a time of deprivation, and, therefore, we must indulge our desires, satiate our bellies, and, indeed, distract ourselves from the difficult reality we need to face. This is a reality that is being held up before our faces in these pre-Lenten Sundays.

We have the image of the Publican and the Pharisee, which gives us the picture of forgiveness of the repentant sinner, and the failure of the attempt to become self-righteous before God. We have the Prodigal Son, which shows us not just the value of repentance, but indeed the expanse of the Father’s love and forgiveness toward the one who did not deserve it. We have the Last Judgment, which reminds us of our callousness, along with the fact that our insensitivity to those who bear Christ’s image will result in God’s denial of us at the Judgment. We have Forgiveness Sunday, and the recollection that without forgiveness, we will not be forgiven.

Our perspective changes if we think carefully about these pre-Lenten themes. If we contemplate these days, our thoughts move away from the idea that we must indulge as a defense against deprivation. Rather, we come to learn that we prepare in these pre-Lenten weeks for an arduous task. We develop the sincere desire that our hardened hearts not receive what they so clearly deserve: separation from God, and the torment of hell.

Lent in such a view comes to be not a time of deprivation, but an entire season of renewal and even comfort. In those transitional weeks between Zacchaeus and Forgiveness Vespers, we have the opportunity to cultivate our minds in the desire for God and a love for our brethren that is not conditioned on what they can give us in return. ■ SERVICE MINISTRIES

An Interview with HTOC's Choir Intern

Last month we sat down to catch up with Zach Mandell, who is serving as Holy Trinity's Choir Director as part of a two-semester internship. Here are some excerpts.

What have you enjoyed most?

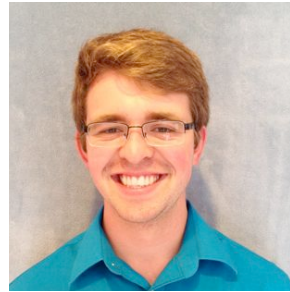

On one hand, getting to know people a little bit better... we do have a large parish so it's been nice to get to know people better. It's been really fun working musically with people... There is a varying level of musical training and musical knowledge so it's been enjoyable to teach and learn how to teach... [I've also enjoyed] just being a part of the service [as director] and being engaged... To be at the heart of everything, of the prayers, of the Psalms—it's just been a real blessing... That is one thing I really love about this parish. So many people in the congregation sing. They are very engaged and that is very encouraging and I think that is very important for one's spiritual growth.

What are some of your objectives for Lent?

One thing is to work with the choir so we can conserve our voices and use our voices properly. It will be a combination of things like musical technique so that when we have all these services we make sure we aren't overdoing things. [To help with this] I may break things up a little bit and have smaller groups do services at times. Also, this semester I really want to reach out to the congregation to get more people involved in the choir, especially when [we are entering] a time when there are so many services. I want to take this opportunity to extend a hand to the people who might be interested but haven't come forward for whatever reason.

Why is rehearsing so important?

When you are singing, you aren't just performing—it is a sacred office so you need to know what you are doing and be committed to what you are doing... We want to sing to the glory of God, not for entertainment... What is at the center is the Eucharist and the service itself. The choir is there to lead but not be the focus of everyone's attention. You are a part of a much larger thing happening. If you [prepare and know] that what you are doing is prayer, you are able to garner the spiritual benefits.

What is the best way to join the choir?

If you have any interest whatsoever, talk to me, talk to Deacon Alex, talk to Father John—if you have any interest in the slightest, you are welcome. All you have to do is ask and I'll be there. We will also have a social at the rectory on Sunday, February 23 at 6 p.m. for all current and prospective singers.

This internship is an experiment for the parish. Would you recommend the parish doing this again in the future?

It's been very good for me and my perception is that it has been good for the choir. When you have an internship you know you are going to do things differently than they used to be, and if you do it again, that person is also going to do things differently. I think that is an important thing for a choir as well. A little bit of change is a good thing within context.

Men to Dish Out Scrapple

At their monthly breakfast on the fifteenth, the Men's Fellowship will serve heaping helpings of scrapple, a wonderful Pennsylvania Dutch delicacy. All men in the parish are invited. Eat your fill before Lent starts!

Young Adults Plan Trip, Potluck

Archimandrite Zacharias, Ph. D., esteemed author, speaker, and disciple of the late Elder Sophrony, will visit St. Tikhon's on Saturday, February 8. The Young Adult Fellowship, a ministry for twenty- to thirty-somethings in the parish, is arranging a pilgrimage by van there that day, leaving the Holy Trinity parking lot at 11:30 a.m. There is no cost for the trip (it includes Vigil, dinner, and Fr. Zacharias' talk), but please bring money for a lunch stop on the road. The group will also hold a potluck/game night at the church on Tuesday the 18th. For info., see Megan Leathers or email youngadults@holytrinity-oca.org.

Check out the Lending Library

The top shelf of the Lending Library now features devotional reading for Lent and Pascha. For details, contact Anna Stickles (librarian@holytrinity-oca.org).

TLC-2 to Spring into Action

TLC-2, which provides care to mothers of newborns, is getting ready to serve a new set of parents-to-be! Now is a perfect time to lend a hand. See or email Corene at tlc-2@holytrinity-oca.org to join the effort.

have the opportunity to clean house by removing the temptation to the rich food and general laziness that too often distracts us from the tragic state of our souls. We can use these pre-Lenten weeks to guide ourselves in prayer, so that when the Lenten effort (and Lenten blessings!) begin, we are ready to participate fully, having set aside all earthly cares.

If our time in the pre-Lenten weeks is spent thinking upon what we'll miss in the season to come, we will find ourselves burdened unnecessarily. Let us think instead upon Christ, and the Cross that awaits him, and embark on that journey, eager to receive every word he gives, never balking when those words interfere with our own plans for our lives. Let us turn instead to the prayer he gives us: "Thy will be done." May these weeks of preparation be filled with joy (and even food) at the prospect of growing in love for Christ and the salvation that exists only in him. ■

- Archdiocesan Property. Delegates to the Jan. 18 Special Archdiocesan Assembly held in Canonsburg voted overwhelmingly not to sell the Archdiocesan Center by a vote of 54-8. More study was called for as well as a strategic plan for the diocese.
- Deacon Jason Isaac will be ordained to the Holy Priesthood in Marshall, AK on March 29. If you would like to help contribute to buy his first set of vestments, please use one of the special envelopes in the narthex (earmark your gift, "Deacon Jason/Vestments"). By the way, there is a nice photo of the Isaac family in the Parish Hall along with a "Thank you" for the support our Men's Fellowship and others have provided.
- Speaking of Alaska, I'll be returning to Alaska briefly to attend the consecration of Fr. David Mahaffey as Bishop on February 21. Alaska in winter!? It's warmer than State College to be sure.

■ CHAPEL OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Engaging the Synder County Community

It was an exciting January at the Chapel. Fr. Basil was a guest on the WKOK morning show on January 10, where he had an opportunity to discuss the feast and talk about Orthodoxy. After the Theophany blessing of Beaver Creek on January 12, we were surprised to have reporters from the Daily Item newspaper (Sunbury, PA) in attendance at our Family Fun Night. This event, with large photographs, was a front-page story the next day. ■

One Church. Two Blessings.

On Sunday, January 12, faithful parishioners from both the Chapel and Holy Trinity prayed that Christ would sanctify Beaver and Spring Creeks, respectively, and the communities through which they run.

From the Rector's Desk

- Don't Forget the New Budget for 2014 is approximately 8% higher than last year ($225,000). In order to help everyone remember the needs of the parish, every household in the parish will receive a month's supply of envelopes in the mail to be placed in the offering baskets on Sunday. This envelope system is a friendly reminder that parish expenses are an ongoing, 52-week-per-year reality. Churches using this system report an increase of 15-20% in annual giving, so it is well worth a good-faith effort this year. Council will re-evaluate for 2015.
- March for Life: Cold weather didn't dampen the spirits of the many thousands who marched for life again this January 22 in Washington, DC. However, we did think it best to cancel HTOC's participation because of the risk of exposure in the frigid air. (The wind chill was down to -5° to -10°F on the Mall.) But a Trisagion for the 56 million unborn lost to abortion over the last 41 years was chanted here that evening.
- HTOC Survey: The Strategic Growth Team has prepared a parish-wide survey for members. It will enable us to ascertain common vision for a way forward for the future as the next step in strategic planning. Look in the mail for your copy.
- Zacchaeus Sunday falls on the 2nd, coinciding with the Feast of the Meeting of the Lord. It's one of those preparatory signals that Lent is approaching in one month (March 3). The Lord tells Zacchaeus: "Make haste." (In other words, "Hurry up. I'm coming to your house.") The calendar tells us to get our houses in order for the Lord's coming, not merely the approach of Lent. It will be a message continued throughout the Great Fast: Get ready. Indeed, Lent will help get us ready for Christ's coming, his Resurrection, his Kingdom, if we pray, fast, and worship together for the Great Forty Days. Long message, short: Zacchaeus made haste. Zacchaeus came to Christ. And salvation came to Zacchaeus. It's the same message for us.
